John Fredy GIL BONILLA

Sudden Beaming Love

Never would have come to my mind,
That my fate had this planned in my life,
That sparkle that brightened the dullness brought inside,

That beam of light that came in harsh times.

As a way to summarize,
You came in a summery dark time,
All thoughts were murky in that enterprise,

Neither love nor passion had sense in my life.

Those summery dark times,
You made blaze as fire flames,
Growing fervor in that bare glare,

Instructing love deities how love is made.

Unexpected Sparkle

Unexpected sparkle came to life,
Like stabbing flashing brightening lights,
No one can assume the vastness of this delight,
Neither Cupid nor Venus can imagine what is in my inside.
